TARIFF BILL'S CHANCE

Good Prospects of It Becoming a Law.

IT WILL PASS BOTH HOUSES.

The Views of Senator Voorhees, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, on the Amended Measure—The Free List Has Not Been Changed as Much as Had Been Supposed—Some of the Articles Changed.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The tariff bill, as reported by the senate committee, makes so many changes from the measure as it passed the house that member of congress are, as a rule, not expressing very decided opinions on it. Many of its provisions are opposed by different members for local reasons, but the belief is general that the bill will pass after the conference committee has made certain concessions and changes. What these may be remains to be developed.

There is little probability that the measure will be made satisfactory to the various interests represented by it, but when it comes to the alternative of either passing the bill, as the conference committee reports it, or not having any tariff legislation, the probabilities are that it will go through.

It is almost certain to do this in the house, but two antagonistic Democratic votes may defeat it in the senate. Senator Hill announces that he will fight the income and corporation tax provisions. Senator Murphy says he is not satisfied with the bill. Senator Brice doubts its passage in its present form.

Senator Voorhees says: "We have but a majority in the senate, and two Democrats have the power in their hands to defeat the bill. We realized that to pass the bill every Democratic vote was necessary. The committee was convinced that this united front could not be assured without concessions. It was concessions or no bill. If the bill could have passed without restoring the tax on sugar and coal I would never have conceded a point. Great reforms are never accomplished without concessions.

"The bill as it now stands, while not reaching its 'as I should desire, will save annually to the consumers more than $70,000,000 and at the same time increase the revenues of the government over $60,000,000. Millions of dollars paid by the consumers under the McKinley tariff goes to the trusts, while under this bill the tax will go to the United States treasury. Last year the sugar trusts paid out in dividends $15,000,000. Then the people had to pay $15,000,000 in bounties to the sugar growers, all of which is wiped out in this bill.

Senator Voorhees said that enough concessions had been made to insure the passage of the bill in the senate. There could not be any doubts about that. The middle of April is the time set for the final vote on the bill by Mr. Voorhees. The bill will remain one week in the committee to give the Republicans an opportunity to make a report against it, then it will be reported to the senate, where it will remain another week before taken up for discussion. Three weeks would be sufficient time for discussion in the senate, he said.

The policy of the Democratic side would be to let the Republicans do most of the talking. The Democrats would not consume time with long speeches, but would confine their remarks to the presentation of facts and reasons for the various changes in the schedules.

There were no reasons, he said, why the bill should not reach the president in six weeks.

The free list is not so much changed as had been supposed it would be, and the abstractions from it are far more numerous than the additions. The date when the free list shall go into effect is changed from June 1, 1894, to June 30, 1894. Apples of all kinds are stricken from the free list and placed on the dutiable list as are also beef, mutton and pork, and bone char suitable for use in decolorizing sugar.

Bituminous coal, shale, coal slack and coke are transferred to the dutiable list, leaving anthracite on the free list. Cocoa fiber is made dutiable. Diamonds and other precious stones, rough or uncut, are added to the free list. Floor matting is made dutiable. Dates, coconuts, Brazil nuts, peanuts and gambier are also taken from the free list. Cod oil is made free of duty.

Salted nuts disappear from the free list. Iron ore is taken from the free list and also olives and orchids, azaleas and palms and other plants used for forcing under glass for cut flowers. Double and twisted silk, or silk advanced in manufacturing any way, to pay a duty. Sugars are to be moved to the list.

WILSON'S CONDITION.

His Fever Is Gone, but He Is in Bed Weak and Much Emaciated.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Representative Breckinridge of Arkansas has received the following telegram from the son of Representative Wilson concerning the latter's condition:

GUADALAJARA, Mex., March 9. Fever gone. In bed; very weak and much emaciated. W. H. WILSON.

The telegram is not regarded by Mr. Breckinridge as encouraging, as the reference to Mr. Wilson's weakness and emaciation dispels rose-colored reports received of late. The son left for Mexico as soon as the first alarming reports of last week were received and his telegram was sent soon after reaching his father's sick bed.

Gladstone Continues to Improve.

LONDON, March 10.—Mr. Gladstone continues to improve and bulletins announcing the changes in his condition have been stopped.

THE A. P. A. IN IOWA.

No Ex-Priests to Be Employed Unless Accredited.

KEOKUK, Ia., March 10.—The state council of the American Protective association closed a two days' session in this city Thursday night. In his annual address President Jackson of Boone said: "We claim, in our principles, that we attack no man's religion and make no warfare on the religious tenets of the Roman Catholic church, and yet we hear ex-priests abuse all of the peculiar observances of this church and vilify and make fun of its observances. We thereby stultify ourselves and bring reproach upon the order and its principles."

The council unanimously adopted a resolution favoring the plan of the president, and hereafter no ex-priests will be employed unless properly accredited by the president.

Anti-Catholic Crusade in Texas.

DALLAS, March 10.—The anti-Catholic crusade has reached Texas in official and organized form. A trumpeter of the American Protective association arrived in Dallas Thursday morning. He is J. W. Hale of Kansas City, Kan., who comes with credentials from the supreme council of the A. P. A. to organize the order in Texas. He is scattering anti-Catholic literature broadcast.

LIMA'S BRIBERY CASES.

Some More Startling Disclosures Made in Judge Ritchie's Court.

LIMA, O., March 10.—The developments in the grand jury bribery affair were intensified by yesterday's disclosures when B. C. Faurot, the ex-president of the Lima National bank and the prosecuting witness against ex-Cashier F. L. Langan, was before Judge Ritchie.

The information against Faurot was that knowing that W. W. Butler was on the jury list, he invited him into his office and offered him favors and promised him benefits in business if he would vote in favor of conviction of Langan. Butler took the stand and swore to the same. Witnesses corroborated his evidence. Faurot did not take the stand in his defense. Judge Ritchie postponed his finding until next Saturday.

H. E. Hall, who is charged with having approached Charley Franks, a grand juror, asked a continuance.

Ex-Sheriff Hoagland is still in jail and a confession is looked for.

CHILDREN BITTEN BY MAD DOGS.

The Community in the Vicinity of West Union Greatly Excited.

WEST UNION, O., March 10.—Five children in different parts of Spring township have been bitten by mad dogs. A boy of James Little's was bitten on the hand and arm by a large Newfoundland pup. The boy ran screaming into the house, and an older brother started out to kill the dog, when it sprang on him, lacerating his arm in a terrible manner. Their father procured a gun, and with much difficulty succeeded in killing the animal. Mr. Little left with the boys for Cleves, O., where the Wamsley madstone will be applied.

The community is excited; and the outcome of this case is anxiously awaited. A mad dog passed through the neighborhood a short time ago and bit several dogs, a number of which have gone mad. The people have commenced a wholesale slaughter of all dogs found loose.

DEATH OF A NOTED DIVINE.

Rev. Charles Machin of Chicago Passes to the Great Beyond.

CHICAGO, March 10.—The Rev. Charles Machin died yesterday at the age of 84. He was for 60 years a Congregational clergyman, an excellent pastor; a fine Greek scholar and conversant with English literature. He enlisted at the outbreak of the rebellion and served as chaplain of the One Hundred and Fortieth New York regiment, and was present at several of the battles in Virginia.

He was a delegate to the first Republican convention in New York, and sat by the side of Thurlow Weed on that memorable occasion and was present when Mr. Lincoln was nominated in the Chicago convention. He leaves a widow, six children, 18 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Co-Operative Party.

MILWAUKEE, March 10.—The Co-operative party, a combination of socialists, Populists and members of the federated trades council, placed a full municipal ticket in the field Thursday night, being the first party in Milwaukee to take such action. The convention was attended by between 400 and 500 persons. The resolutions roundly denounced the Republicans and the American Protective association.

Youthful Outlaws.

BOURBON, Ind., March 10.—It has been discovered that a gang of boys from 12 to 15 years of age has been committing various depredations in this vicinity and concealing its plunder in an old house in the woods, where nightly meetings are held, each member wearing a mask. An effort is being made to identify the young rascals and bring them to justice.

House Furnishers Assign.

LIMA, O., March 10.—George L. Newson has been appointed receiver for Hoover Brothers, general house furnishers, the largest business house in the city. Assets are about $75,000; liabilities, $16,000. Pressing creditors and dissolution of partnership caused this move.

Pugilist Fatally Beats His Wife.

HARTFORD, March 10.—Thomas Houlihan, pugilist, was arrested in this city last night and is held to await the result of his wife's injuries, the result of a beating given her by him. His wife is dying as the result of his brutal treatment. Houlihan belongs in Middletown.

CONDITIONS OF TRADE

R. G. Dun & Company's Weekly Review.

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS.

Great Activity Shown at Present, But Confidence in Future Improvement Does Not Seem to Increase—Distinct Gain in Iron and Steel Manufacture—Failures Are Growing Less Important.

NEW YORK, March 10.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Evidences of present improvement in business multiply, but confidence in future improvement does not seem to increase. There is more business and a larger production by industries, for the season has arrived when greater activity is necessary if dealers' stocks are to be replenished, and those who can not make calculations beyond a few months are the more anxious to crowd as much trade as they safely can into those months.

In some branches of distribution, however, there are indications of a diminishing demand for goods, and the evident preference for medium and low priced articles with the known reduction in wages and family expenditures lead many to feel somewhat less confident that business will soon recover its former volume. Undertakings reaching beyond a short time are not made with greater freedom, and in spite of a larger present demand prices of manufactured goods tend downward.

The most distinct gain is in iron and steel manufacture. The output of pig iron increased 10 per cent though it is still 37.8 per cent less than a year ago. Trade in bar iron is very unsatisfactory. Rails are flat and with a larger production of coke, contracts are made at as low prices as ever. Tin is lower, with a fall at London being quoted here at 18.5 cents, and copper does not improve, though lead is slightly higher. Shipments of boots and shoes from the east are 14.8 per cent smaller than a year ago for the same weeks, and purchases are still mainly of medium or low priced goods.

In textile manufactures and dry goods there are increased activity and replenishment of stocks, as is natural at this season. But the demand thus far falls much short of expectations, and its character indicates great economy in consumption. In woollens also manufactures are increasing production, mainly in a tentative way, or on orders, which are little more than sufficient to test the market. In the past five weeks the decrease has been only 12 per cent, which is a marked improvement, in part due to the fact that the mills having any orders are buying at once what wool they expect to need for months to come.

Breadstuffs and oils have been stronger, provisions weaker and cotton hesitates. Wheat advanced one-half cent, western receipts being only 2,116,087 bushels, against 3,359,100 last year, and Atlantic exports 1,102,170 against 775,192 last year. Corn receipts at the west were 3,815,150 bushels against 2,140,981 last year, but the price rose nearly 1 cent. Lard and hogs both declined nevertheless. Sales of cotton were larger, at first with some decline, which was afterward recovered. The recovery in the price of bar silver, which fell to 27d, but recovered to 27.31, has affected prices.

The volume of domestic trade shown by clearings decreases for the week only 17.4 per cent outside New York and 34.9 per cent here compared with last year. In foreign trade changes are also for the better, exports having been large, and for four weeks 14 per cent larger than last year, while the decrease in imports for February was 37 per cent.

Failures are growing less important and somewhat fewer also. For the week ending March 1, the liabilities thus far reported were only $2,937,832, and for four weeks of February $14,886,091, of which $6,732,615 were of manufacturing, and $7,697,127 of trading concerns. The number of failures during the past week has been 248 in the United States, against 193 last year, and 60 in Canada, against 32 last year.

QUIET IN THE MINING REGION.

Governor MacCorkle Denounced by the Striking Miners.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., March 10.—Everything is quiet in the mining region. Mr. Ferry, chairman of the executive committee of the United Mine Laborers, was at the st. house and had a long conference with Governor MacCorkle, the nature of which was not made public.

There was a meeting at Montgomery last night of the striking miners, addressed by General C. C. Watts of this city, United States district attorney. It is impossible to give any report of the meeting.

The miners are very much incensed against Governor MacCorkle for sending troops to Eagle and it is said that one of the objects of the meeting last night was to denounce him.

The detectives that have been at work among the miners are not Pinkerton men, but are engaged by the Mooney & Baland detective agency of Chicago.

Resuming After a Year's Idleness.

BRIDGEPORT, O., March 10.—The Bridgeport glass works will resume in all departments March 15, after a year's idleness. The works will be run on the co-operative plan, the employees sharing to a certain extent in the profits.

Didn't Find Him.

MOSCOW, Ida., March 10.—The party which went into the Bitter Root mountains to the relief of Colgate, the cook of the Carlin party who was deserted on the Clearwater, has returned without finding any trace of him.

INSURGENTS ALMOST HOPELESS.

Admiral Da Gama Seeking an Opportunity to Surrender to Foreign Commanders.

RIO JANEIRO, March 10.—There are reasons to believe that Admiral Da Gama considers the chances of success on the part of the insurgents almost hopeless, and that he is seeking an opportunity to surrender to the foreign commanders. This is thought to be due to the failure of Mello to reinforce him from the south and to the fear that he may be overwhelmed at any time by the arrival of the government fleet.

This fleet is now engaged in mysterious movements between this harbor and Cape Frio. In the daytime the vessels of the squadron are to be seen in the vicinity of Cape Frio, while at night they hover near the entrance to Rio harbor. It is thought the squadron is waiting for some vessel or vessels, but whether it expects to be reinforced or to intercept the enemy, it can only be conjectured.

Indemnity Paid to Germany.

BUENOS AYRES, March 10.—A dispatch received from Rio Janeiro states that the German admiral has demanded of the insurgent commander the payment of an indemnity for the seizure of a lighter which was flying the German flag and also for firing upon a German steam launch. The lighter at the time it was seized was lying alongside the German steamer Catania. According to the dispatch Admiral Da Gama has acceded to the demands of the German admiral.

Four Hundred Killed in Battle.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Herald's Montevideo special confirms the report of a battle near Savandia, in Brazil. The rebels were routed with great loss. More than 400 were killed, including many officers.

"JACK THE RIPPER" FOUND.

He Is in the British Lunatic Asylum at Dartmoor.

LONDON, March 10.—The fact has developed, although so far it has been kept a profound secret, that the authorities have got on the track of "Jack the Ripper." The information leaks out from Scotland Yard, and has been guardedly confirmed by a leading officer of the metropolitan police.

The atrocious criminal, it is said, is an inmate of the government lunatic asylum at Dartmoor, in which he was incarcerated within a few weeks after the last Whitechapel horror, the authorities having no knowledge of his antecedents at the time of his committal as an insane pauper with homicidal tendencies.

The Scotland Yard authorities have possession of the knife, which is of Chinese make, with which the Whitechapel murders were committed. They were also familiar with the ripper's movements during the intervals between the murders, and have been able to trace him to the asylum after his last crime.

Although pronounced incurably insane by the asylum physicians, the man has a clear recollection of the past, and all his conversations and remarks have reference to his crimes in the East End. Correspondence has passed between the government criminal department and the asylum authorities relative to the murderer's condition, and as to whether now, or at any time in the near future, he is or will be likely to be sufficiently rational to be placed on trial. The result of these inquiries has not yet been disclosed.

A FORGETFUL SUICIDE.

Slashed Himself While Drugged and Screamed Murder Later.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., March 10.—"Murder, murder," were the startling cries which yesterday morning drew attention to one of the strangest cases of suicide on record. William L. Dunn, a contractor from Akron, came here a week ago and has been on a protracted spree ever since. The night before he went to bed at a hotel and took large quantities of morphine and chloral. About 3 o'clock in the morning, according to his story, he got it into his head he was tired of life. He got a penknife and cut his neck in a frightful manner. He bled profusely, but being under the influence of the drugs, dozed off to sleep.

In the morning he awoke and seeing himself covered with blood, and having no recollection then of what had happened during the night, he thought some one had tried to murder him, and screamed vigorously. Attendants burst in the door and found him in a pool of blood. Doctors cared for him, and when he became thoroughly conscious he recollected what had happened and told the above story. He will probably recover.

PRIZE FIGHTERS' CASES.

Judge Gillett Renders Judgment in the Forfeited Bond Suit.

HAMMOND, Ind., March 10.—Final judgment was yesterday rendered by Judge Gillett on the $1,000 bond which Martin Costello, the convicted prize fighter, recently forfeited by fleeing to Canada. The court appointed ex-Senator Yonche as special judge in the suits which the prosecutor will bring to foreclose the forfeiture of three similar bonds of $1,000. The bondsmen are indemnified.

The other suits against President O'Malley and other members of the defunct Columbian Athletic association have been set for an adjourned term of the lake circuit, and will be heard the week beginning April 23. There are 21 charges of riotous conspiracy against members of the club.

Oil Train Runs Into a Landslide.

OIL CITY, Pa., March 10.—A freight train of oil tank cars on the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad ran into a landslide at Walnut Bend, near here, and was badly wrecked. The oil ignited and the cars were consumed. Fireman Martin was killed and several of the crew were slightly injured.

A BATTLE IN INDIA.

Whole Detachment of British Troops Slaughtered.

FIGHTING THE ABOR TRIBES.

Captain Maxwell With His Six Hundred Men Have Met With a Determined Resistance in Trying to Punish the Abor Tribesmen—After Severe Fighting He Was Compelled to Retreat.

CALCUTTA, March 10.—Dispatches received here from the neighborhood of the scene of operation of the columns engaged in punishing the Abor tribesmen, announce serious losses sustained by the British. An additional detachment of 200 men left Sadiyah Thursday to meet the British expedition commanded by Maxwell, which has for some time been following up the retreating tribesmen. According to native reports, Captain Maxwell has met with such determined resistance that he has not only been unable to reach Damroh, the town he had for some time past been endeavoring to capture, but he has been so hardly pressed by the Abors that, losing a number of men in killed and wounded, he has been compelled to retreat after destroying the fortified camps which he had occupied during the forward march of the expedition.

Another dispatch received here from Gowhaty, the chief town of Assam, announces a still more serious disaster for the British arms. It appears that a detached party, composed of 30 rifles and four British officers, had been operating as an escort to a train on its way to Bordax with provisions and ammunition for the garrison for that town.

The detachment encountered no resistance until it was far from its base of operations, and then the tribesmen began to gather ahead of it and on its flanks, keeping up a galling fire, which eventually brought the detachment to a standstill. For two days the little detachment kept up a continuous fight, day and night, with the tribesmen, but eventually the little band of 30 soldiers, surrounded by thousands of tribesmen, were killed.

The entire Abor expedition is in a most critical situation and in addition to the troops hurried forward from Sadiyah, reinforcements are being sent with all possible haste to the front in the hope of rescuing the Maxwell column. The exact strength of the column commanded by Captain Maxwell is not known, but on Jan. 3 600 men were dispatched against the Abor tribesmen on the Assam frontier, an attack having been made a few days previously upon a party of British police, of whom seven were killed.

AN AROUSED COMMUNITY.

A Vigilance Committee Being Talked of at Jeffersonville.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., March 10.—The recent outrages at the Armstrong farm, three miles from the city, the finding of a murdered babe in an alley, the wholesale chloroforming of the Briggs, Quick and Boyer families with the intention of robbery, the assassination of old man Geer and the attempt by a brace of tramps to overpower and outrage two highly respected young ladies of this city, mention of which has been made in these dispatches, has so aroused the citizens that it is quite probable a meeting will be called for the purpose of organizing a vigilance committee, with a view to exterminating the villains if found.

These high-handed depredations have all been committed within the past two weeks, and the police force, sheriff and deputy sheriffs have been unable to ferret out the scoundrels.

"These recent disturbances," said a citizen, "are not a credit to Jeffersonville. Should they continue, it is probable that their fruits may be seen by White Cap organizations, who will work in conjunction with the proposed vigilance committee, unless the law can reach the marauders who are dragging down the fair name of the town and county by murder and theft."

A DRUNKARD'S CRIME.

He Kills His Wife and Baby and Will Be Lynched if Caught.

NASHVILLE, March 10.—News has just reached here from Celma, Tenn., an isolated hamlet, of a horrible tragedy. George A. Smith, a farmer, 35, living on the edge of Pickett county, went home drunk Wednesday night and enraged for some unknown cause, beat his infant child to death, following this crime with a brutal pounding of his wife, whose throat he afterward cut.

Leaving his bleeding victims, he went to the house of his sister-in-law, whom he found in bed sick. Grasping her by the hair, he pulled her out of bed and began to beat her, but she escaped and alarmed the neighbors, who soon discovered Smith's horrible crime. Smith fled to the woods, but is pursued by enraged neighbors, who will lynch him if caught.

Decision in a Famous Suit.

HAMMOND, Ind., March 10.—Judge Gillett yesterday afternoon gave out his decision in the famous suit of the city of Hammond against the Chicago and Erie Railway company for violating a municipal speed ordinance, prohibiting the moving of trains faster than six miles an hour within the city limits. The court held that the ordinance was unreasonable and found for the defendant. An appeal was taken to the supreme court.

LOWER SALEM, O., March 10.—Mrs. John Hupp, while in a fit of temporary insanity, committed suicide by cutting her throat with a razor.

OWEGO, N. Y., March 7.—Higgins, Platt Republican, was elected Mayor over Bulger, Cleveland Democrat, by twelve votes. The result will be contested on the ground of fraud in three wards. Over 5,000 votes were polled. McGowan, Hill candidate, received less than four hundred.

The above is very interesting in that it indicates that Grover's popularity in his home State has not waned so very much. Senator Hill doesn't seem to be in it at all.

Will the editor of the BULLETIN kindly give the dates of the numerous strikes that he charges up to the reduction of wages under Republican rule?—Public Ledger.

Somebody loan Br'er Davis a pair of spectacles, please. Just commence with January 1, 1881, and run along to 1886. In that period of good Republican times there were nearly 5,000 strikes against reductions of wages. Br'er Davis has failed to tell us what brought about these strikes under a high tariff.

"From every point of the compass comes news of Republican gains," remarked the Cincinnati Tribune Friday. And then the Tribune puts Pennsylvania down as showing a G. O. P. gain of 123, 253 at the late election. We have been resting under the impression that the Tribune was disposed to discuss questions fairly and not try to bamboozle its readers. The plain truth about the result in Pennsylvania is that the Republicans, instead of gaining any in their vote, lacked nearly 40,000 of reaching the vote cast for Harrison in 1892.

THERE will be no afternoon service at the M. E. Church, South, to-day. Rev. John Reeves, P. E., will preach to-night, the service beginning at 6:45. There will also be a reception of members at this service. The quarterly meeting services will be held to-morrow. Rev. Mr. Reeves will preach at 10:30 a. m. and administer the communion. Also at 6:45 p. m., when other applicants for membership are expected to be present for reception. A special children's service will be held the following Sunday for the baptism of children and the reception of those who are applicants for membership. Professor Fogg will conduct the music at the services to-night and to-morrow.

John Downton's Residence Burned.
The residence of Mr. John Downton on Third street, Sixth ward, was destroyed by fire about 2 o'clock this morning. The flames were discovered in time for the family to save most of the household goods.

The loss is placed at $700 or $800, while the insurance on the building and contents amounts to $600, in the National, represented by Mrs. Laura Dimmitt.

The fire started on the roof, but it is not known how it caught.

River News.

On the last trip of the Keystone State a lady passenger carried with her a feather bed, which was an important part of her luggage.

The Bostona is said to be desired at St. Louis to be used in the excursion business. It is supposed that she will be sold when the City of Louisville is finished, says the Cincinnati Tribune.

Cincinnati Enquirer: "The new Campbell's Creek towboat, building at Louisville, will have a battery, or rather coils, of boilers, of a pattern never used on a large Ohio River steamer before. They will be of the ward pattern, which is a system of circular wrought iron pipes, with upright stand-pipes for strengthening braces, with the fire outside of the pipes. The water is circulated by the heat. Explosion from any cause is claimed to be impossible, while a working pressure of steam of 300 pounds or more will be used, and is expected to add fully 50 per cent. to power of her engines, which are double strength in all their wearing and breaking parts."

Pork Packing.

There has been some reduction in the marketing of hogs, says the Price Current, but the supply has been liberal for the time of year, especially so in comparison with the small offerings a year ago. The packing in the West for the week has been 245,000 hogs, compared with 295,000 the preceding week, 140,000 last year and 175,000 two years ago. Had the increase shown for the first week in March appeared in the February movement, the January estimates would have been fully realized or more. With the free offerings of hogs, prices have been easier, and at the close the average for Western markets is 10 and 15 cents per hundred pounds lower than a week ago.

Mysteriously Missing.

A special from Lexington says: "Clay, the thirteen-year-old son of V. T. Clinkenbeard, is mysteriously missing from home. He was sent on an errand Monday morning, and has not returned. His father was in the act of leaving with his family for Maysville, where he has accepted the position of head-cutter in the establishment of John T. Martin & Co." The Transcript yesterday stated that young Clinkenbeard had probably gone to New Orleans.

WINDING UP THE BUSINESS.

What the Law-Makers Are Doing at Frankfort in the Closing Days of the Session.

The bill which provides that the State shall pay $75 per capita a year for care of pauper idiots was passed by a vote of 58 to 25.

The Master Commissioner's bill was passed. This is the substitute offered in the House by Mr. Searcy for Mr. Clark's bill, which provided a fee of $5 on additional tracts of land sold under the same judgment. Mr. Searcy's substitute, which Mr. Clark approved, raises the present scale of fees one-half cent.

The bill which provides methods and manner for holding elections in cities of the fifth and sixth class whose corporate limits embraced parts of two counties was passed.

Senator Goebel's bill to regulate toll on gravel, plank and turnpike roads came up next, and a motion was made to place it at the bottom of the orders of the day. This would mean that the bill would not come to the top again. Senator Goebel antagonized the motion. The bill was simply passed in the orders of the day.

Mr. Pugh spoke with considerable feeling in behalf of the following bill, of which he is the author: "That on and after January 1, 1895, it shall not be lawful for the authorities of any county, city, town or taxing district in this Commonwealth to levy or collect any poll or capitation tax for other than school purposes." It was refused a third reading by a vote of 11 to 21.

The House on Friday passed the bill to increase the allowance to the Insurance Bureau to $3,000 annually.

In the House Thursday, Mr. Hammond's bill to provide free turnpikes came up for action. Debate on the measure was opened by Mr. Hiles, of Bracken, who supported the bill with ability and warmth. Mr. Hiles moved the previous question, and when the bill passed, which it did by a good vote, he at once clinched the action by moving to reconsider and to table that motion. The bill, it is thought, will also pass the Senate. It provides for purchase of turnpikes by counties in the discretion of the court, the people having voted upon the proposition.

Judgment Against the C. and O. For the Burning of a Barn Near South Ripley.

Something over a year ago, a large barn belonging to Mr. Wilson Smith, near South Ripley, was destroyed by fire one windy day. It was claimed that sparks from a C. and O. freight engine started the blaze, and Mr. Smith asked the company to pay him for his loss.

This was not done and suit was finally entered. The case came up for trial in the Circuit Court Thursday, and ended yesterday morning with a verdict for Mr. Smith.

The jury awarded him $800 damages.

In the Republican Senate at Trenton, N. J., this week, the officiating chaplain breathed a prayer that "the Power on High" would influence the Supreme Court to decide in favor of the Republican body as representing the moral elements of the State. The chaplain's prayer would seem to indicate that the court may be unable to find any reason in the world for such a decision, remarks the Philadelphia Record.

THE L. and N. freight engine was making up the train yesterday about 1 o'clock when some cars were started out on the siding north of the depot. They were given too great a momentum, however, and one of them didn't stop when the end of the track was reached but came on into Bridge street. It so happened that an electric car was passing the point at the time and a collision was narrowly averted. The passengers were all badly frightened for a few minutes.

BLAND'S SEIGNIORAGE BILL.

The Final Vote Will Be Taken in the Senate Next Thursday.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Pepper, at the opening of the session, offered a resolution providing for a committee to examine charges in various newspapers that certain senators had utilized knowledge gained officially for dealing in sugar stocks and had made large gains. In reply to Mr. Morrill, Mr. Pepper stated that he had no personal knowledge of the charges, and at his request the resolution was tabled temporarily.

Mr. Vest called up the house bill authorizing a bridge over the East river between New York and Long Island. The bill passed without objection.

A bill was passed appropriating $200,000 to pay the damages resulting to the persons who went upon the Crown Creek and Winnebago Indian reservation in South Dakota between Feb. 17 and 27, 1885.

Also a bill granting a right of way across the Scarborough Hill military reservation in Washington state to the Liwaco Railway and Navigation company.

Then came up the Bland seigniorage bill as unfinished business.

Mr. Allison asked that the bill go over until Wednesday at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Manderson inquired if amendments could be offered.

Mr. Harris replied that he did not think he would consent to this.

Considerable discussion followed, and finally Mr. Harris suggested that Wednesday a vote be taken on Mr. Allison's motion to reconsider, and if that failed Mr. Manderson might move to commit to the finance committee, the final vote to be taken Thursday at 2 o'clock. This was agreed to and debate on the bill was then resumed.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—In the house, after transacting some business of minor importance, the house went into committee of the whole for the further consideration of the District of Columbia bill. At 3 o'clock the debate closed and voting took place on various amendments.

At 5 o'clock, without completing the consideration of the bill, the house took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session to be devoted to private pension bills.
